The following is from the Chicago Democrat, a leading paper in Lincoln's and Douglas' State of Illinois:—

What will the cavalry do about it?

Will they eat dirt? Will they take back all the have said about disunion, a southern confederacy, the rights of the South, the blood of their enemies, and a host of other things which they have said since the Rogers and the Keitts, the Jefferson Davis, and all that noble army of traitors do? To what dodge will wise, the doughty champion of the Flay Stack war, resort, in order to cover his inglorious retreat? Where is the armor with which he was to march on Washington and seize the city?

The cavalry will eat dirt. They will back out. They never had any spunk anyway. The best they could do was to bully, and brag, and bluster. Job

Brown and his seventeen men were enough to affright the whole night of commonwealth of Virginia out of its walled cities to hold it as a conquered province until the day of the battle of Appomattox. John Brown's ghost is more terrible than an army with banners, in the eyes of every southern cavalier. These knights of the sunny South are just such heroes as Sargento Panza was. They are wonderful hands at bragging and telling fantastical lies; but when it comes to action count them out.

The Kansas Troubles.
*The Land Sales to be Presented—*Return of the Minute Men.

WARSAW, Mo., Nov., 26th. — Dr. Milton, a resident of this city, arrived from Fort Scott on Saturday, with

He reports that Montgomery in person, accompanied by five miles of that place, with 75 or 80 men, and a detachment had entered Fort Scott, and on finding that the government officers had fled, and the country which was to have been held on Monday last, broken up, they seemed to be satisfied, and did not molest the town in any way.

Montgomery's object for the present, it seems, was to break up the officers and thereby break up the court and prevent the trial of some 30 of his friends who were in custody. He publicly declared that he will remain to prevent the land sales, which are advertised for the 31st of December, and also to take possession of Vinton and Bates counties. In the meantime Montgomery is said to be quietly encamped, with large and comfortable quantities of provisions, &c.

The men from Bull's Mills, who were supposed to be of Montgomery's band, appear to have been a company of government troops on their way from Fort Leavenworth to Fort Smith.

Dr. Milton did not hear of any of Montgomery men having been in Missouri.

Judge Williams left here yesterday morning for Clinton, Mo.

The small party of Independent Minute Men, who left here a few days since, have returned. They went far as Bull's Mills, and report that the nearer they advanced toward Fort Scott the less they heard of the difficulties.

Further from Kansas.

INDIANWORTH, Kan., Dec. 10.—Letters from Inrence give another account of an interview of Secretary of War John A. Beebe with Montgomery. The writers say that Beebe told Montgomery trying a man named McDonald for an alleged offense in favoring the execution of the fugitive slave law. At the solicitation of Mr. Beebe, was set free. On being expostulated with, Montgomery said it was his duty to have satisfied the power of the territory and federal governments.

Gen. Harney and Gov. Medary arrived at the Fort this morning, and will leave for Southern Kansas tomorrow, with one hundred dragoons and two pieces of artillery.

Gen. Bain, in command of a body of troops, started from Fort Riley for the same destination, to rendezvous at the mouth of the Missouri River, at the mouth of the Missouri River, sixteen miles from the mouth of the Missouri River. Secrecy is preserved by the officials in regard to understand Mr. Morrison, well-known for many years as a gentlemanly Conductor between Weldon and Wilmington, will command her. She is fitted up with every necessary convenience, and is one of the finest Ferry Boats we have ever seen.—Portsmouth (Va.) Times, 28th inst.

UNDER A NEW NAME.—The steamer Clarendon, formerly the "Princess Anne," purchased some time ago from the city of Norfolk by Geo. W. Grace, Esq., having been furnished with new boilers and put in complete order, will leave here for Wilmington, N. C., as soon as the weather permits. She has been purchased by J. H. Wilmington, Charlotte and Rutherford Railroad Company, for the Cape Fear river, connecting with the Charlotte and Weldon, and the Wilmington and Raleigh roads.

BEAUFORT SUPERIOR COURT was in session all day. We learn that but little business of a civil character was transacted. Monday, Tuesday and the greater part of Wednesday, was consumed in the trial of the misdemeanor of "Docket." On Wednesday morning Messrs. Latham were arraigned under an indictment of murder, for the homicide of the late John W. Gray and pleaded "not guilty." They were represented by Messrs. McRae, Rodman, Satterthwaite, Carter &

Singletary, and Solicitor Houston, H. W. Miller, E. Messers, W. Sparrow appeared for the defense. The affidavits were read, the accused removed to Pitt County for trial, and the suggestion of the State's counsel, the Messrs. Latham, were adopted to bail and discharged from custody. Solicitor Houston ably and faithfully represented the interests of the State, and has made a decidedly favorable impression upon our citizens.—The Washington Dispatch.

From the Manchester (N. H.) Democrat, Douglass, It will be seen by the despatches from the South, that the war never runs high and strong. We expected to find the South in a more desperate mood, and we fail to see the cause of this. It is probable that we will pretend that this sectional strife can continue years without serious results. Whether these are now or not, a few weeks will determine. Some now we expressed the conviction that this campaign would settle the negro question. Its result is announce and we have nothing more to do about it—now or h

 the result is, however, between the prohibitionists of North and the protectionists of the South. The n have triumphed. The contingency has occurred, u which the South promised to rebel. NOW LET THEM
 IT, OR FOREVER AFTER HOLD THEIR PEACE. They
 they conquered and humiliated; and now they must tak
 such measures of justice as Abolitionism may be p to accord.

POPULATION OF RUSSIA.—Soon after the war in China the general census of the population was tak throughout the Russian empire; and the result and gives the following results: The total popula is 79,000,000. The number of females exceeds the the males by 1,750,000. The lower orders, serfs, p raders and artisans, form a total of 53,500,000;

nobles and the higher guilds of traders about 1,000,
The nobles still possess 21,000,000 serfs.
